PARTY HEARTY

Join us on Tuesday, April 17th, 4:00 pm at the Pool Gazebo for a fabulous POT LUCK to celebrate the end of tax season. Sign up sheet is filling fast, so be sure you are included and note your culinary contribution to our gathering. 50/50 raffles and White Elephant drawing as well. Bring cash and wrapped items. Thanks to Social Committee Chair Eileen Deimler and all gracious, hardworking party planners.

HURRICANE SEASON PREPAREDNESS

For long-time Florida veterans, and those who are newer transplants to the area, especially for those who are returning to Northern homes soon, an important reminder to carefully inspect your property and remove all objects that could become flying projectiles before you depart. Even small items can do a great deal of damage to your property, and your neighbors. Venice was spared catastrophic damage during last year's hurricane, however, it's critical to be prepared.

A NEIGHBORLY REMINDER

It is sometimes difficult to back out of driveways when cars/trucks are parked directly across the street. When possible, kindly ask guests or workers to move their vehicles so not to block your neighbor from entering or leaving their driveway. Thank you all.

UPDATES ON NEW HOSPITAL

The Master Association's website: www.chestnutcreekvenice.com has the latest information on public meetings and other issues related to building plans. Also, check their Directory Search to be certain your contact information is current.

KUDOS AND CONGRATULATIONS TO MASTER BUILDERS....

Ron Gerlach, Howard Grubb, Richie Hayes, Jim Gdovic, Ed Kerallah, Neil Milligan, Lynn Ruchs who used their brawn and brains to add a much-needed extension to our shed/storage area. GREAT JOB GENTLEMEN! If I overlooked anyone, please let me know.
