MASKS

Cindy Charland has some cotton masks to give to neighbors who are compromised and need one. They can be microwaved to kill any viruses and they can contact her directly thru email (cindycharland@aol.com for requesting a mask).

Cindy is in need of 1/4" elastic and any 100% cotton is appreciated too, if anyone has that.

Cindy will be leading the charge of Villa miracle mask makers this Tuesday, 1:30 pm at the Gazebo.

FOOD PANTRY

Christine Uttaro is a volunteer at St. David's Episcopal Church Food Pantry in Englewood which is still operating, serving growing numbers of poor and homeless people, but supplies are quickly dwindling. If you would like to donate non-perishable food items (tuna in cans or packages, peanut butter, rice, pasta, sauce, beans, canned fruit and veggies, etc.) you can drop off at Christine's home, 850 Bayport Circle, and she will deliver them weekly.

FBI WARNS OF SCAMMERS TARGETING AT RISK PEOPLE

In Wednesday, March 25 Herald Tribune (page A3) there was a lengthy article identifying examples of current frauds to swindle people with false hopes of obtaining medical equipment and drugs. The article is posted on the pool bulletin board. You can contact the National Center for Disaster Fraud Hotline at 866-720-5721 or via email at disaster@leo.gov.

VILLA EVENTS

The Pot Luck Dinner scheduled for Tuesday evening, April 28 is still on the calendar.

Look for sign up sheet at pool bulletin board.

Thanks Eileen and Social Committee for keeping our community connected.
