FROM VILLA PRESIDENT LYLE KIENITZ

Say 'Hello' to new neighbors in the hood: David & Susan Hallee at 410 Pendleton Dr.; Robert Hicken and Joseph Amato at 412 Pendleton Dr.; and Julie Mate at 534 Pendleton Drive. Welcome and we hope you love the neighborhood as much as we all do!

This Saturday, December 4, from 9-12 noon will be our bake sale, craft bazaar at the main pavilion by the pool. It may be small, but we hope, good! Bring cash as most of the vendors will not take credit cards.

December 15 is the Master's meeting on ZOOM. Watch for signs and notices sent from ARGUS Mgt. If you don't get the email notice, call or email Argus (in front of directory) to be notified. Also, confirm your mailing address with them to get your ballot for January.

December 16 is the Villa's meeting at the gazebo at 10:00 am. Please come and see what it is all about. This is your community.

Both the Villas and the Master Association need more volunteers--not just for office, but for committees that do a lot of work in the neighborhood. The same few people get tired and could use some assistance--you know, more hands and all that! You don't have to volunteer for everything, but just one thing would be helpful. Talk to a Board Member and get involved. Thank you!

Also, when you see one of the Board members or committee members at activities or in the neighborhood, please THANK THEM! They are all volunteers and much appreciated. Our wonderful, friendly, giving neighborhood is because of their work, keeping everything running smoothly (or mostly).

December 21, Alice & Lyle Kienitz will have a Christmas open house for all those in the Villas. BYOB and a snack and we'll party until we can't!

December 25, Alice and Lyle will be having Christmas Dinner, turkey and ham and the trimmings. Please join them and don't be alone, the Thanksgiving Dinner was wonderful and everyone enjoyed it immensely. Call or email for your place at the table--989-274-9827, or d176on25n@gmail.com.

For those traveling North, please be safe and return soon.
Everyone have safe, happy, healthy and loving holidays!
