In Flanders Fields

*In Flanders fields the poppies blow
Between the crosses, row on row,
That marks our place, and in the sky
The larks, still bravely singing, fly.
Scarce heard amid the guns below.*

*We are the Dead, Short days ago
We lived, felt dawn, saw sunset glow,
Loved, and were loved, and now we lie
In Flanders fields.*

*Take up our quarrel with the foe:
To you from failing hands we throw
The torch: be yours to hold it high.
If ye break faith with us who die
We shall not sleep, though poppies grow
In Flanders fields.*

The iconic First World War poem "In Flanders Fields" was written by Canadian physician and Lieutenant Colonel John McCrae on May 3, 1915. He was inspired to write it after witnessing the burial of his friend, Lieutenant Alexis Helmer, the day before. The poem was first published in Punch magazine in December 1915.
